

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5 A visual information system. In one embodiment the visual information system is a computer system storing visual presentations indexed by time and location. In a further embodiment the visual information system includes facilities for providing voice-overs for the visual presentations.

10

15

20

25

30

35